

Customers should obtain all enrollment materials, including each program's Program Description, by visiting Virginia529.com or by calling 1-888-567-0540, and read them carefully before investing. Your investment may lose value. Prospective participants should seek the advice of a professional concerning any financial, tax, or legal implications related to opening an account. Virginia College Savings Plan (Virginia529) cannot and will not provide legal, financial or tax advice and the information provided on this website should not be construed as such with respect to the consequences for any particular individual as a result of contributions or distributions from a Virginia529 account.

Virginia529 accounts are not deposits or obligations of, or insured or guaranteed by Virginia529, the Commonwealth of Virginia, or any agency or instrumentality thereof. CollegeWealth accounts offer FDIC insurance to the maximum amount allowed by law – currently $250,000 (in conjunction with the value of all other accounts, if any, held at the participating bank by the account owner as determined by that participating bank and by FDIC and other applicable regulations).

For residents of states other than Virginia: before investing, you should consider whether your or the beneficiary's home state offers any state tax or other state benefits such as financial aid, scholarship funds, and protections from creditors that are only available for investments in that state's qualified tuition program.

Virginia Freedom of Information Rights & Responsibilities Information